Best Way Connection Group Ltd is committed to acting ethically, with integrity and transparency in all business dealings, and to taking reasonable steps to prevent modern slavery, forced labour, human trafficking and worker exploitation within its business and supply relationships.

Our business provides workforce solutions and operational support across construction, logistics, security, facilities and related sectors. We recognise that responsible recruitment and lawful worker treatment are essential to maintaining professional standards and protecting individuals from abuse or exploitation.

Our approach includes right to work verification, identity checks, direct worker engagement, awareness of exploitation risks, and escalation of any safeguarding concerns where appropriate. We expect the same responsible standards from clients, suppliers and business partners with whom we work.

Best Way Connection Group Ltd maintains a zero-tolerance approach to modern slavery and is committed to reviewing and strengthening its controls as the business grows.
